Dear Boddah I'm a simple man

What I'm saying you should understand

The love for things I've done has come and gone

I'm burnin' out and moving on

You're so far away from you

Farther than the eye can see

You never knew all the things you could do

You're so far away from me

Sad little sensitive, Pisces-Jesus man!

Tried and tried to make them understand

Always in the same place reversing near and far

And all in all is all you are

You're so far away from you

Farther than the eye can see

You never knew all the things you could do

You're so far away from me

I'll be at your altar shining down on you

Angel's hands guiding what you do

Can't help to feel that you're better without me

Peace, Love, and Empathy

You're so far away from you

Farther than the eye can see

You never knew all the things you could do

You're so far away from me
