When simon peter walked abreast, putting his faith up to the test

He said master will thou bidst me come unto the Jesus said come, so peter went and when the faith he had was spent

Peter sank low but jesus had waves roll under his feet

Under his feet

Under his, under yes under his feet

There's not a problem that you'll face, he cannot meet

Whenever you've waded out to far and problem to deep

Remember when waves are over your head there under his feet

Often we faint in trials soar, can't face our problems anymore

Forgetting where ever we may go, he's been there

We should look up and praise the lord, he walks the waters and the shores, the heavenly breeze and the thundering seas are under his feet
