Don't think it was never the words you said
Don't speak, I prefer when you're quiet
All we ever do is start a riot
We joined forces (but we'll never sing! )
The same song alike

Our tears will tell (our lives! )
We'll never live forever (it's time to tell! )
Our stories

This will be our hearts ripped dropped down on stone
again
Load up your guns, let's take this (outside! )
Into the wilderness, out in the valley of the great
unknown
(Out where there's no coming back! )

Sweet 16 held a brighter outlook
We bounced and we danced with every step that we took (We grew apart! )
But now we're older and grown up
The bounce in our step has completely dried up

Our tears will tell (our lives! )
We'll never live forever (it's time to tell! )
Our stories

This will be our hearts ripped dropped down on stone
again
Load up your guns, let's take this (outside! )
Into the wilderness, out in the valley of the great
unknown
(Out where there's no coming back! )

(We'll take this to our graves)
Those words will never change
Don't bring it back up, let's keep this buried (Those things) will never happen again
Never listened to a single word we ever said
And this is where the story ends, our hearts were never broken

We've been falling from the starting of the first day me met (first day we met! )
Burnt our bridges down (we'll burn our bridges down! )
