Really ought to check the hair
Or maybe you don't care
Here it comes from the side
You could see it if you tried

Ought to check your shoes
Hey, how about the shoes?
Here they come from the glass
That you walk by extra fast

Don't you know that you need it sometimes?
Why not go and stare it down?
It's better to see it all as someone
Who keeps his eyes on the ground

Nearly bought it all today, like every other day
Seeing everything so clear, watch out for that
There's always something
That almost turns you 'round

Don't you know that you need it sometimes?
Why not go and stare it down?
It's better to see it all as someone
Who keeps his eyes on the ground

Don't fail me now, don't forget how
Don't believe it, leave it
Donna get it gonna see
