I took and burned what remained of myself
And there I broke it into finest dust
Into pieces shattered and though Iâ€™m broken
I am not ashamed
I am not afraid
The one who sees you will put you through
If you feel like the only one
If you feel like you're on the outside
I know there's one who sees you so you don't have to be afraid
We won't be afraid anymore
If you feel like the only one
If you feel like you're on the outside
We won't be afraid
