I try to listen, listen to you to wake up alone in my heart for this word, for one word, in this world, in my mind. I forgot your smile to many times but I can't forget when you show me that you cry. I broke your sweet heart, I'm fallin' down now and now, pray you please forgive me I try again to make a change in my sick mind, 'cause I need you everyday in this cold life, I know I'm falling, I know I'm falling, now I'm falling in love with you It's time to make one, make a change because I fall and I don't know why I know I miss you, I know I need you I know, I'm falling in love with you I try again to make a change in my sick mind, 'cause I need you everyday in this cold life, I know I'm falling, I know I'm falling, now I'm falling in love with you
