I'm still alive
Must have been a miracle
It's been a hell of ride
Destination still unknown, it's a fact of life

If you make one wrong move with the gun to your head
You dare to walk the line or you'll be left for dead

I'm a runaway train on a broken track
I'm a ticker on a bomb that you can't turn back
This time, that's right
I got away with it all and I'm still alive

Let the end of the world come tumbling down
I'll be the last man standing on the ground
As long as I got blood rush through my veins
I'm still alive

Lost in the night
Feeling so invisible
Oh, a dead man walking the wire
I have broke the devils net that's made of fire

And it's a long way down from the top of the world
You better look around or you gonna get burned

I'm a runaway train on a broken track
I'm a ticker on a bomb that you can't turn back
This time, that's right
I got away with it all and I'm still alive

Let the end of the world come tumbling down
I'll be the last man standing on the ground
And as the dust wheels look in my eyes
I'm still alive
I'm still alive

The darkest night ain't black enough
To keep the morning light from shinin'
The highest wall ain't tall enough
To keep the smallest man from climbin'

The more that you resist the tide
The more it pulls you in
The more you hang on for your life

(I'm a runaway train on a broken track)
(I'm a ticker on a bomb that you can't turn back)
(This time, that's right)
That's right
I got away with it all and I'm still alive

I'm a runaway train on a broken track
I'm a ticker on a bomb that you can't turn back
This time, that's right
I got away with it all and I'm still alive

Let the end of the world come tumbling down
I'll be the last man standing on the ground
And if my saddle is all that survives
I'm still alive
I'm still alive
I'm still alive

I'm a runaway train on a broken track
I'm a ticker on a bomb that you can't turn back
(I'm still alive)
Let the end of the world come tumbling down
I'll be the last man standing
(I'm still alive)
