I was so hypnotized
By the smile in your eyes today
Flying free as a bird
Caught inside every word you say
I want everyone to see

This is big time, this is larger than life
See the sparks fly when you're standing by my side
Every step, every move, everything I do
Life is beautiful because of you

Every breathe that you give
You are my sweet oxygen I breathe
You made me fall away fast
So my dreams could get pass the end
I want everyone to feel

This is big time, this is larger than life
See the sparks fly when you're standing by my side
Every step, every move, everything I do
Life is beautiful because of you

How did I survive before
You came into my life?
I'd do anything at all
Anything at all for you

This is big time, this is larger than life
See the sparks fly when you're standing by my side
Every step, every move, everything I do
Life is beautiful because of you

All because of you
Because of you
Everything I do
Life is beautiful because of you

This is big time, this is larger than life
See the sparks fly when you're standing by my side
Every step, every move, everything I do
Life is beautiful because of you, because of you
