Never callin', unanswered letters
How you been, feelin' better?
Never lookin', but you're hearin'
Never speakin', but you're feeling

All the silence, and it's wounding
You're not healing, just concealing
Play the game
Play the game

Oh brother to brother, all the blood runs red
Don't roll over, don't play dead
We're all livin' on the razor's edge
Oh brother to brother, all the blood runs ruby red
We're all victims of the razor's edge

All the rules don't mean a thing
They're wasting time, the memories sting
Keep your image, plant that smile
Answer questions, don't let on Make up stories all put on
That's your life, oh, your life is gone

Oh brother to brother, all the blood runs red
Don't roll over, don't play dead
We're all livin' on the razor's edge
Oh brother to brother, all the blood runs ruby red
We're all victims of the razor's edge

You see you're losing, yet you still try
The game just watches your life go by You're playin' well, you're playin' well, oh, play the game

You see you're losing, yet you still try
The game just watches your life go by
You're playin' well, oh you're playin' the game

Brother to brother, all the blood runs red
Don't roll over, don't play dead
We're all livin' on the razor's edge
Oh brother to brother, all the blood runs ruby red

We're all victims of the razor's edge
