You sure know what your name is, you sure of where ya live
You know how much you make, ah, ya know how much you give You know where your house is, you know which road to take Ah, you're sure 'bout lots of things, look out there's one mistake

Chorus:

There just ain't no doubt, there's just one thing you're never too sure about Never can be too sure about the girl
Oh, you never can be too sure about the girl
You leave her there, when you get back
She calls ya bill, when your name is jack
Never can be too sure about the girl

You know about the truth, you can see it in her eyes
One thing you know about love, it'll cut ya down to size
You hear what they tell you, do you do what you're told
And if they say yes, does it mean it's really so?

(chorus)

You're ready for the thrill tonight, you think you'll take it slow
But she's forgotten more, boy, than you will ever know She calls you up in the middle of the night, she says she's lonesome and alone
You're all revved up, finally some place to go
You knock on that door - nobody's home

Never can be too sure about the girl
Ooh, you never can be too sure about the girl
You leave her there, when you get back
She calls ya bill, when your name is jack
Never can be too sure about the girl
Oh, you never can be too sure about the girl
She'll drive you crazy boy, oh, girl, no no
Never can be too sure about the girl

Never too sure, never too sure, never too sure, never too sure Never too sure about that girl
No, you never can be too sure about the girl
Oh, you never can be too sure about the girl... (to fade)
