Cross unsuitable subjects off a list
Erase all irrelevant information
No detail must be missed
Answer the questions: A, B or C
Question one complete
Now move on to questions two and three
Chorus:
Girls and Boys don't want to play
How many people can I have today?
Don't think this doesn't mean you
There's no escape whatever you do
Do they fulfil all the criteria?
Are they qualified?
Or is there room for improvement here?
Everything must be correct and in perfect order
Anything less is unacceptable
And compromise leads to failure
Some see this behaviour as selfish and paranoid
That complicated manipulative techniques
Should not be employed
But if you know what you want,
Then you can get what you want!
What's wrong with a bit of analysis?
...and some persuasion of the population?
