I came back from the dead
I have so many scars embedded in my skin
Remind me of days gone by
Remind me of the years that have passed
I stood my ground to come out better off
I take it in, every breath, it could be the f*cking last

I come from a town that will always be home
So many memories that will die with me
I come from a town that will always be home
So many memories will f*cking die with me

Try and cut me down to my knees
I will stand back up to fight
Try and cut me down to my knees
Nine lives I just won't die

No mercy
No remorse
No remorse

I seen death before I know I'll see it again
I have so many scars embedded in my skin
Remind me of days gone by
Remind me of the years that have passed
I've seen death before it still hurts to breathe
I've seen death before me

Barely breathing
It hurts to breathe
Left for dead
It hurts to breathe
Left me for dead
Barely breathing
Left me for dead
Barely breathing
Left me for dead
Barely breathing
Left me for dead
Barely breathing
