I'm so happy I'm here, everything is going fine nothing like home makes me think about the time when we said we would run away for good now I'm here without you I saw a picture of you hanging with some new friends happy to see that your doing okay and li like the one where your having fun in the place where we met oh no here I go randomly thinking about you and there you go

making your way into my head even though I said I could do this without you
here I go again,
here I go again.

everyone says think about my future don't throw it away on someone who's miles and miles away yeah that's what they say but I'm just human so I got up today didn't think about you found a new favorite place and the sky was that color of blue that looks best on you yeah yeah yeah yeah

here I go
randomly thinking about you
and there you go
here I go again,
here I go again.

so now I know wish you were here and nothing I do makes you disappear what can I do about it?
what can I do about it?

I wish you were here , I wish you were here. so now i know I wish you were here I'm walking on a tightrope trying not to fall into thoughts of you

here I go
and there you go
making you way into my head

making your way into my head even though I said I could do this without you
here I go again,
here I go again.
