It was so beautiful
I still see it in my mind
I had everything with you
In my picture perfect life
I would lay awake at night
Having dreams before I'd sleep
Every moment was with you
And your future was with me

But life isn't always how you make it
And now I'm just learning how to take it

Now I see who you are
Cause I know who I am
This wasn't in the cards
This wasn't in my plans
Sometimes the only way a heart will ever learn
Is when it turns, when it turns, when it turns
When it turns...

Now I'm just questioning
Was it real or just my faith?
Was it a test for me?
With the illusions we create?
Cause I still lay awake at night
Counting reasons why we tried
But it just comes back around
You can't control how things turn out

But life isn't always how you make it
And now I'm just learning how to take it

Now I see who you are

Cause I know who I am
This wasn't in the cards
This wasn't in my plans
Sometimes the only way a heart will ever learn
Is when it turns, when it turns, when it turns
When it turns...

This was so ordinary

Love never has a plan
Dreams change as seems fitting
Don't try to understand

My love, my love
I, I couldn't find love
I tried love, tried love

But, it never was enough

Now I see who you are
Cause I know who I am
This wasn't in the cards
This wasn't in my plans
Sometimes the only way a heart will ever learn
Is when it turns, when it turns, when it turns
When it turns...

Now I see who you are
Cause I know who I am
This wasn't in the cards
This wasn't in my plans
Sometimes the only way a heart will ever learn
Is when it turns, when it turns, when it turns
When it turns...
