Leave me alone watching my feelings fading away
Let me run on the sand
Dreaming for something that I never had

Let me sleep now
Let me dream all day long
Reaching for something that I wish to have

Dreaming of you is all I do these nights
Here in my bed when I sleep on
All that I wish is to see you smile
To live these days much better

Leave me alone now
Let me run all day long
Reaching for something that I never had

I just wake up but I'm still dreaming
I drink my milk alone
I want you here with me to keep on sleeping
Before this dream will be gone

Dreaming of you is all I do these nights
Here in my bed when I sleep on
All that I wish is to see you smile
To live these days much better
