Across the edge, across the line, across the hands of your time
Over there I see the light but I can't find the way this time
Oh my dear this is the end and if you're scared take my hand
Destination the sky, this is the road to your favourite star

We are moving moving at the speed of light
Your eyes just like my best desire
We are moving moving at the speed of light
I can't control my brain tonight

I am gonna take you there, believe me now, should I swear Let's go! now I'm waiting for your call, I am waiting for the show
With a snap of my finger I can do everything and I think it's amazing Destination your dreams come true, no matter what you say, it's just me and you Take me all around your world and drive me back home

We are moving moving at the speed of light
Your eyes just like my best desire
We are moving moving at the speed of light
I can't control my brain tonight

GO GO GO your own direction
I just like your imperfection
We are moving moving at the speed of light
I can't control my brain tonight

Go your own direction, I just like your imperfection [x2]

GO GO GO your own direction
I just like your imperfection [x2]

We are moving moving at the speed of light

Your eyes just like my best desire
We are moving moving at the speed of light
I can't control my brain tonight
