Do you remember every now and then?
We used to play guitar and sleep all day
Do you remember me back in the day?
Being lazy and I wouldn't care

Well every thing's changing
Those days that were easy
Just keep getting farther
I've been pretending
I'm not getting older
But I can't fight it
Time keeps passing

I'm 18 years old
Still know nothing at all
'Cause I'm 18 years old
And I'm losing control

Ditchin' school almost every day
And we had fun but now we're all just scared
That everything's changing
Those days that I'm missing
Just keep getting farther
I've been pretending
I'm not getting older
But I can't fight it
Can't deny it

I'm 18 years old
Still know nothing at all
'Cause I'm 18 years old
And I'm losing control

Oh no
Oh oh
Yeah

18 years old and what have I become?
I'm just hoping to God that I will reach my goals

I'm 18 years old
Still know nothing at all

'Cause I'm 18 years old
And I'm losing control
