I could see you think that you're the one
I could fall for you
But I wouldn't waste my time
I shouldn't be this cynical
But I've heard it all before
I know exactly what's on your mind

All you want me to be is a little souvenir
Of a night that you won't even remember.

It's not because I'm worth it
It's not cos I deserve it
You just wanna get your hands
On a little piece of me

It's not because you feel it.
Not because you really mean it
You just wanna get your hands
On a little piece of me

You think that I'm unapproachable
Playing games with you
Cos I wouldn't waste my time
I couldn't be this cynical
But I've heard it all before
Every single word of every line

All you want me to be is a little souvenir
Of a night that you won't even remember.

It's not because I'm worth it
It's not cos I deserve it
You just wanna get your hands
On a little piece of me

It's not because you feel it
Not because you really mean it
You just wanna get your hands
On a little piece of me
I don't wanna be

Something you can talk about

Something I could do without
I'm not like you
I can't fake it the way you do
You say you want me
Well if it's true

It's not because I'm worth it
It's not cos I deserve it
You just wanna get your hands
On a little piece of me

It's not because you feel it.
Not because you really mean it
You just wanna get your hands
On a little piece of me

Yeah yeah

It's not because I'm worth it
It's not cos I deserve it
You just wanna get your hands
On a little piece of me

It's not because you feel it
Not because you really mean it
You just wanna get your hands
On a little piece of me

Yeah yeah yeah yeah
