I've been practicing all day
Now the words I meant to say are gone
I promised that I wouldn't cry
Told myself I had to try and hold on

The truth I lied, I hate myself inside
And why I played the game and paid the price

I never look back, I never cry
Never try to wonder why
I'll be on my own and never doubt
Never shout or wonder how
I'll never be lonely until this time, this time, this time
This time I will

I've been wide awake all night
There's no sign of sleep inside my mind
But the headlight shadows scan my wall
I convince myself you'll call in time

The truth I lied, the girl in me has died
And why I played the game and paid the price

I never look back, I never cry
Never try to wonder why
I'll be on my own and never doubt
Never shout or wonder how
I'll never be lonely until this time, this time, this time
This time I will

This time I will be yours completely
This time I'll make sure you don't hate me
This time I know, this time I can
And this time I will

I never look back, I never cry
Never try to wonder why
And I'll be on my own and never doubt
Never shout or wonder how
I'll never be lonely until this time, this time, this time
(This time I will)

I never look back, I never cry
Never try to wonder why
(This time I will)
I'll be on my own and never doubt
Never shout or wonder how
(This time I will)
I'll never be lonely until this time, this time, this time
This time I will

I've been practicing all day
Now the words I meant to say are gone
