i heard you ring, so you'll be there with bells.
i know you know, this side of things so well.
i'm standing here, and waiting for an answer.
and still in awe...

somehow i knew it was impossible
and somehow i knew...
and it's taking a long time, i knew it was impossible
and somehow i knew...
yeah i knew

this time is closer
and somehow, now
it's not what i wanted.

think for yourself, it makes no sense to me
but i believe.
hey, hey, in time you'll know, you've know it all along.
to take a bow and leave them with a song.

somehow i knew it was impossible
and somehow i knew...
yeah i knew

this time is closer
and somehow, now
it's not what i wanted.

and it's taking a long time
i knew it was impossible
and somehow i knew...
yeah i knew

this time is closer, and somehow, now it's closer
and somehow
it's not what i wanted.
