Outside the door, she is waiting
Dressed in her jacket and jeans
Smoky tired eyes, innocent air
All the young boys stopping to stare
Believing they stand a chance
They caught a glance
Sunday at noon opening soon
All the young boys
All the young boys

They want to know
They want to know
Juliet, where's your Romeo?
Where oh where is your Romeo?
Tell me Juliet, where's your Romeo?
Tell us tell us dear, for we all want to know

Where do you come from dear lady?
Where are you going from here?
Could the street be your life?
Are you somebody's wife?
Do you punch in the time?
And are you hooked on the line?
Pretending you'll never lose
Catching the cruise
Friday at one
The night's begun

Oh mother and father
Mother and father
They want to know
They want to know
Juliet, where's your Romeo?
Where oh where is your Romeo?
Tell me Juliet, where's your Romeo?
Tell us tell us dear, for we all want to know

All the young boys
All the young boys
They want to know
They want to know
Juliet, where's your Romeo?

Where oh where is your Romeo?
Tell me Juliet, where's your Romeo?
Tell us tell us dear, for we all want to know
