Lay down baby, let me coax your fire
Stay here baby you're walking on a wire
Close your eyes surrender inhibition
Free your mind of any superstition

Isn't it just what you asked for
Right here right here in front of you
It must be just what you asked for

What you need is just a little change
I can help help you to rearrange
I know honey just how to inspire
I have everything that you might require

Isn't it just what you asked for
It must be just what you asked for

Lay down baby, let me coax your fire
Stay down baby, you're preaching to the choir

Isn't it just what you asked for
It must be just what you asked for
