STATUS: finished, a few words may be wrong

When I look at you, and all I can see

Is the shadow of your life

You see the stage is a mirror: you can see me

But I can't see past its light

Lovers have tried to reach down inside

I only said that they were wrong

But when all I've got left, is me and my pride

I realize you can't buy love with a song

So somebody take me out of the night

Show me what life is made of

Won't somebody reach inside of my heart

I think that I'm ready to love

I think that I'm ready to love

Feels like I'm ready to love

Oh

Well a lesson that's learned too late is a crime

I can't stand the pain of what could have been

Oh it's such a shame there's noone to blame

Ch:But/BL:Yet noone knows what I have seen

What do you see when you look at me

Do I really seem so far away

But the song will go on

And you will applaud

And when you look at me I'll just keep singing

Somebody take me out of the night

Show me what life is made of

Oh somebody reach inside of my heart

I think that I'm ready to love

I think that I'm ready to love

Feels like I'm ready to love

Oh show me what life's made of

Somebody please reach inside of my heart

I think that I'm ready to love

I think that I'm ready to love

Feels like I'm ready
