Far away Your kingdom calls to me
Though we are many worlds apart
I cannot deny this mystery
You placed Your crown around my heart

Far is near and near is far away
These are things I can't explain

It's dry like the water
Cold like the summer
Calm as the crashing waves
Still as the wind blows
Close
(Near)
As a rainbow

Closely far away

I see the mountains fall into the earth
The depths are higher than the clouds
This reality where last are first
And the oceans upside down

Far is near and near is far away
Everything You are can change but stay the same

Your in the here and the after
Your in the pain and the laughter
You whisper to me in the thunder
A servant, and a King, and a Lover
