So this is it, the final curtain
The cold December of our dream
Where did it go, what ever happened
To our love?
The memories from our tomorrow
Are haunting me from yesterday
I wonder why we left forever fade away

Close your eyes
And listen to the breeze tonight
Is it a lullaby, a song 'bout a butterfly?
Why do we say goodbye?

I see your moon on the horizon
But I don't know for what it shines
'Cause I pray a prayer
But I can't find us anywhere
Anymore

Close your eyes
And listen to the breeze tonight
Is it a lullaby, a song 'bout a butterfly?
Why do we say goodbye?

(Close your eyes)
(And listen to the breeze tonight)
Is it a lullaby, a song 'bout a butterfly?
Why do we say goodbye?
Is it a lullaby, a song 'bout a butterfly?
Why do we say goodbye?
