I believe a little lovin' is stronger than steel

From the moment that I saw you in my dreams
I didn't know what to do
Oh, for such a long time I've been going to extremes
Just looking for you

I believe you're everything I wanted you to be (wanted you to be)
Although I can't explain this feeling
I am here tonight
I'm by your side

I believe a little lovin' is stronger than steel
I believe a little lovin' is all that we need
I'm believing in the power of love
And the love makes me stronger
Stronger than I've ever been

For the first time I'm enjoying who I am
So let us keep it this way
Oh, and if I ever wanna live my life again
I would live it the same, yeah the same

I believe in this visions out of solitarity (of solitarity)
Can you see that I am stronger know
You made me see how life should be

I believe a little lovin' is stronger than steel
I believe a little lovin' is all that we need
I'm believing in the power of love
And the love makes me stronger
Stronger than I've ever been

Oh, now, well baby come on if you can't make up your mind
Oh, this reason to hurry, I'll stay by your side
Stronger, stronger, stronger every day

Oh, oh, oh, oh

I believe a little lovin' is stronger than steel
I believe a little lovin' is all that we need
I'm believing in the power of love
And the love makes me stronger
Stronger than I've ever been
