Here in this place I never thought we'd be today
After all that we've been through, we've come a long way
Together, you and I
Here I will rest my case and let my weakness show
I've got nothing left to prove and I will follow
This new road tonight
All I want (All I want), all I need (All I need)
Is for you to stand by me

Oh baby, one love
Walking in the darkness I need one love
Always there to help and guide me
One love, that's all I need
One love
Bigger than the two of us now, one love
I'm not afraid to put my trust in one love
That's all I need

I can see the million tears that left your eyes
And I can hear the words that hurt you
I can feel you, the thorn in your side I'll take you in (I'll take you in), I'll see you through (I'll see you through)
And I'll be there to stand by you

Oh baby, one love
Walking in the darkness I need one love
Always there to help and guide me
One love, that's all I need
One love
Bigger than the two of us now, one love
I'm not afraid to put my trust in one love
That's all I need

When the world
Is cold outside
And I need a place to hide
You are there (You are there), holding on (Holding on)
Let me know I'm not alone
I'm not alone

One love
Walking in the darkness I need one love
Always there to help and guide me
One love, that's all I need
One love
Bigger than the two of us now, one love
I'm not afraid to put my trust in one love
That's all I need
Standing here tonight beside me
One love, that's all I need
