I hear the sound of heartbeats
That's fading into emptiness
Throughout the night I travel
In the distance with my loneliness

Finally I've become the hunter
Hunting for the love I am worthy of
Finally I've become the hunter
Hunting for the love I am worthy of

Inside my heart it's wrenching
I am longing for real wilderness

Finally I've become the hunter
Hunting for the love I am worthy of
Finally I've become the hunter
Hunting for the love I am worthy of

All this time on my own
I never thought that I could feel sorrow

Finally I've become the hunter
Hunting for the love I am worthy of
Finally I've become the hunter
Hunting for the love I am worthy of
Finally I've become the hunter
Hunting for the love I am worthy of
