I can be a man
Believe me 'cause I am
The best you've ever had
The best of all the bad
I chisel your defenses
From the bottom to the top
And sizzle all your senses
You'll be begging me to stop

I whip you from behind
In an air of sweaty lust
And hypnotize your mind
With scary fairydust
I'm taking you to heaven
I know you can't resist
You see it's now or never
That I'll cross you off my list

Come to me baby, give me your love
I'm gonna show you heaven above
This is the moment, right were we are
I'm gonna take you
Come with me...

Follow the way now
Come follow me
Follow the way now
Come to me
Be ready for me
Ready for me

I'm sitting on my throne
And admire from above
Can hear my body move
In the dialects of love
Creating a sensation
Were nothing's as it seems
Beyond imagination
And all your wildest dreams

Come to me baby, give me your love

I'm gonna show you heaven above
This is the moment, right were we are
I'm gonna take you
Come with me...

Follow the way now
Come follow me
Follow the way now
Come to me
Be ready for me
Ready for me

Are you ready?
Are you ready for me?
Haha, oh yeah

Just let your body come to me
Are you ready?

Come to me
Be ready for me
Ready for me
Ready for me

Are you ready, ready for me?
