Did you think you'd stop my heart the day you said goodbye?

Did you think I'd crumble inside?

Well I hate to tell you

But I'm doing just fine

I loved you hard, I loved you long

But now my love is moving on

Touch me now

Sing with me that nevermore refrain somehow

Time has come to give my very last goodbye

I'm running out of tears

I've been facing all my fears

Mr Memory, you and me are... History

Not that I forgot the nights of endless, aching pain

I didn't think I'd ever find my strength again

But look who's still standing with eyes out of tears

I loved you hard, I loved you long

But now my love is moving on

Touch me now

Sing with me that nevermore refrain somehow

Time has come to give my very last goodbye

I'm running out of tears

I've been facing all my fears

Mr Memory, you and me are

Now that I know who you are

Tomorrow belongs to me, and now

I'm free to live my life

(Touch me now)

(Sing with me that nevermore refrain somehow)

'Cause time has come to give my very last goodbye

I'm running out of tears

I've been facing all my fears

Mr Memory, you and me are... History
