I wash my mind out in the summer rain
And feel a breeze touching my soul
When I'm not with him then I understand
I'm but half without his hand to hold

I wrote his name up in the sky one day
But silent winds blew it away
And so I wrote it in my heart instead
An that is where it will always stay

Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah
Watch me now for eternity
Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah
Promise once and again
My love will go on with you near my love

The lonely silence of the rising sun
Leaves floating gently down the stream
Constant reminders of sweet harmony
I can swear that we were ment to be

Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah
Watch me now for eternity
Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah
Promise once and again
My love will go on with you near my love

If you see me falling down, falling down, falling down
You can bring the light along and shine
'Cause I'm yours and you are mine

For eternity
Ah, ah, ah, ah, ah
Promise once and again
My love will go on
My love will go on with you near my love
