Here she comes, there she goes
She's the girl no one knows
One of the invisible people, yeah

She's got style, so much class
What the hell, no one cares
About the invisible people

How does it feel?
Being left on the outside

When no one saw you coming, join the club
With the invisible people (invisible people)
Stuck on the outside, try to get in
With the invisible people (invisible people)
You're just another face in a crowded place
Where no one can see you, but me

When you're old in the dark
Another stranger in the park
One of the invisible people, yeah

Say hello, no reply
Say hello, say goodbye
It's undeniable

How does it feel?

When no one saw you coming, join the club
With the invisible people (invisible people)
Stuck on the outside, try to get in
With the invisible people (invisible people)
You're just another face in a crowded place
Where no one can see you, but me

You're so tired of being all alone
And you want to be remembered
And no one ever calls you on the phone
You're longing so badly for company
You wanna make a change in history

La la la la la, la la la la with the invisible people
La la la la la, la la la la with the invisible people

When no one saw you coming, join the club
With the invisible people (invisible people)
Stuck on the outside, try to get in
With the invisible people (invisible people)
You're just another face in a crowded place
Where no one can see you (no one can see you, no one can see you)
But me
