(Fred Fisher - Billy Rose)

Since the parting of the ways you took all my happy days
And left me lonely nights
Morning never comes too soon I can't face the afternoon
But all those lonely nights.

I feel your arms around me your kisses linger yet
You taught me how to love you now teach me to forget
You broke my heart a million ways when you took all my happy days
