(Gerald Morrison - Joseph Kennedy - Ted Steels)

An American landed on Erin's green isle
He gazed on Killarney with a rapturous smile
How can I buy it he said to the guy
I'll tell you how, with a smile he replied.

How can you buy all the stars in the sky
How can you buy two blue Irish eyes
When you can purchase a fine mother's heart
How you can buy Killarney.

Nature restore of her kiss with a smile
Me and Rose the shamrock and the barley
When you can buy all those wonderful things
Then you can buy Killarney...
