Do you believe in life?
Do you mean it when you live it?
We left the light lean on our bodies
On this skin this sac of dung and joy
There's no face, not anymore, but there's the will to die to the sound
When the music become flesh, then we, we become music.
And now we give you a chance, are you ready to breath in Now open your eyes!

Mad cop Dogs, I was living to fight on
We're making out the difference, we're making out the difference
We're blackmailing just for you

Help me Punch me to make it real
I was fighting you Hummer and Tongues
I've lost my control the moment i heard you say
Nothing last, nothing last
And everything was taking over me but I know I'm in the clear
Clap your bloody hands, leave your tears alone right in the front of the entrance

I will make it right tonight
Everybody knows what you're feeling like
Living in holly wood
Let me now wash your soul and spread your eyes
Everybody knows what you're feeling like
Living in holy wood
And that will make you cry

Wild wish ma'am please bite your tongue
My dead money won't cry out today
To fight tooth and nail it's useless when you just say
Nothing last, nothing last
And everything was taking over me but I know I'm in the clear
Clap your bloody hands, leave me on the floor with a good punch on the front door

I will make it right tonight

Everybody knows what you're feeling like
Living in holly wood
Let me now wash your soul and spread your eyes
Everybody knows what you're feeling like
Living in holy wood
And that will make you cry

Stopping your breathing down here
I need I cure just to stay, cause everyone was looking in my portrait
(Pillow tell me where you belong)
Cause this is how the story ends when you cry all the way with a pillow in your ends and a mess on
