Your getting tracked by the stranger
She's your no.1 danger
I'd watch your back because she is a real life rearanger
Got the thrills got the pills and she dedicated Simplistic life and I know I want to manipulate it
But I back down and break down and bleed
This shit is real and know I want to see you go down
Taken it back won't help looking into my eyes an say
What the hell went wrong

I'll be here for
I'll be here for

Run away go away your not seeing it
Run away go away not believing it
Run away go away your not seeing it
Run away run away

Remember me short skinny kid with the temper
Tender in the mind and a big weed defender
Education from a hose and a breaker bottle
Dreamin about that bitch wonder if she'll spit or swallow
But I back down and I break down and bleed
This shit is real and know I want to see you go down
Taken it back won't help looking into my eyes an say
What the hell went wrong

Out on my own

It's not going away
What about my life I'd trade it back you just won't miss it
What about my time
