I'll only think of you when I try to cross that endless
ocean
As long as my guides are guiding me I don't know how much time I need Sometimes my dreams seem so far away
And I feel like I am lost

There are angels all around me
They give me faith and hope with wings to fly And I feel like I have to fly right now to the skies that take me to tomorrow
I keep calling you but there's no answer from you

I'm drifting all by myself
So many tears are falling down

I'll only think of you when I try to cross that endless
ocean
As long as my guides are guiding me I don't know how much time I need
It's a miracle that there's still life that keeps living in my own world

Don't know how far it is to get there
But we know we're always happy
As we're trying to look for our dreams
Together
