I wanted you to know
That i'm thankful
For having you here with me

You saved my tears
From all i've been through
But now you're drying
The piece that i had in me

I want to know the place you came from
Cause the one in me
Is burning me and killing dreams
I want to know can i lie right next to you
Cause i love you and hope you love me too
Do you love me too

Hey
What about today in the dark
I wanna take you with my body
Take you down in the mud
I don't wanna game you till your fall isn't ready to go
You'll have to gain it
I won't send it to somebody you know
You gotta cry if you're alone
That's the way that it goes
Grow up you'll be a star
I wonder if you can get your feet up if the people say
why
You gon' be tired
Imma help you be light
If you gon' make it to the bridge
I will let you know know

I'm trippin' high high
You wanted to know
And always beggin somebody
And take 'em on the same road
And healing blood
But i never got to take that home run
And all that bleeding make my vibin undertake my whole world

Do you wanna know where you go
What i feel like to never be the good
You ain't somebody cause somebody has to Already be right in fame no
And i wont get it
I'm not gon thank him
'cause i'm ready

I want to know the place you came from
Cause the one in me
Is burning me and killing dreams
I want to know can i lie right next to you
Cause i love you and hope you love me too
Do you love me

Remember all them same things
Cuttin' wings
You never get to wear dreams
Hey hope some of um today
You just got to let um in your home
In your bed and your soul
You gotta let it boom your trust
Can you ever know
Don't forget the lesson of them doors
They won't always be closed
You gotta take it to the level
Where the pressure is blood
But you can do it
Everything you gotta keep it in you
When you are ready better jump into that dream
Cause it's true

I want to know the place you came from
Cause the one in me
Is burning me and killing dreams
I want to know can i lie right next to you
Cause i love you and hope you love me too
Do you love me
