Heed my words!
I have come to prepare the way
This message will open your eyes
Open your eyes

Our doubts are traitors
They lead us from our goals
The fearful are the fallen
It's dismay that corrupts your soul
I know this but I can't stray away from Christ.

Let faith live strong, it carries me, pain for so long.
You're all I need.
Let faith live strong, it carries me, pain for so long.

He's the one that will open your eyes,
Allow him inside.

Let faith live strong, it carries me, pain for so long.
Let faith live strong, it carries me, pain for so long

This will be, eternally.
