Dancing with the heat
From your ear against mine
Made me a victim to love
A love that was never divine

You were my first
I hated it all
Oh I hated it all
Always there to show me
The next place to fall
Cause you knew I would fall

You were so far from
Anything I ever wanted
Temptation took over
And now everywhere that I go
I am haunted

Hello (Hello)
Hello and goodbye
Here is to hoping that I
That I can forget everything
About that night

Hello (Hello)
Hello and goodbye
Here is to hoping that I
I never see you again in my life

Really I can't blame anyone
But myself
I could have stopped it
Oh I wish I did

I knew nothing but visions until you
I robbed myself of my own innocence
You came back more vicious
Than ever before

I should have seen it coming
You were perfect
Perfectly covered in blood

And I saw right through you

Evil!
Pure Evil!
Evil!

The look in your eyes
Your intentions were poison

Hello (Hello)
Hello and goodbye
Here is to hoping that I
That I can forget everything
About that night

Hello (Hello)
Hello and goodbye
Here is to hoping that I
I never see you again in my life

No!
You didn't brand me
No!
You didn't brand me!

You didn't brand me!
You're just a bump in the road!
Soon I'll wake up from this nightmare
And I will be happy
And you'll be alone

I saw right through you
Your intentions were poison
I saw right through you
It's the look in your eyes

Hello (Hello)
Hello and goodbye
Here is to hoping that I
That I can forget everything
About that night

Hello (Hello)
Hello and goodbye
Here is to hoping that I
I never see you again in my life
