"Burning A Hole In My Mind"

Though it happened long ago, the hurt just won't let go
And it's burning a hole in my mind
I see her and I see you and the things we used to do
And it's burning a hole in my mind

I said I'd forget and I tried but my heart tells my tongue that it lied
Though I've tried to forgive every moment I live is a torture the devil designed
In my mind's eye I see how you made a fool of me
And it's burning a hole in my mind

Though it happened long ago, the hurt just wouldn't let go It's the torture the devil designed
In my mind's eye I see, how you made a fool of me
And it's burning a hole in my mind, it's burning a hole in my mind
