

Connie Smith

"I'd Still Want To Serve Him Today"

Visit "I'd Still Want To Serve Him Today" on MotoLyrics.com

If there were no hope beyond awfully shadows and all things eternal disappeared If God should ordain that heaven must vanish and there'd be no mansions up there If Christ should never appear in the clouds to catch his children away
If each holy promise were canceled oh I'd still want to serve him today
For I was nothing when Jesus touched me heartache and sorrow fill this house of clay But He gave me joy that the world can't destroy Gave meaning to my life that had fallen away So if I looked forward and saw no reward no hope beyond death and the grave He's already given my soul enough heaven that I'd still want to serve him today He's already given my soul enough heaven I'm still gonna serve him today

Visit Connie Smith page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.