(Ricci Mareno)

Like a wond'rous dream that ends with dawn
Your love touched my heart then you were gone
Though I couldn't keep you for my own
You're the only happiness I've known.

You're the one who taught me how to smile
Your love brightened up my world awhile
Warm and tender darling you remain
Just a little sunshine in the rain.

You're the one who taught me how to smile
Your love brightened up my world awhile
Warm and tender darling you remain
Just a little sunshine in the rain.

Just a little sunshine in the rain...
