

Connie Smith

"Living Without You"

Visit "Living Without You" on MotoLyrics.com

Before you left, I set myself some crying time aside
I knew that getting over you would take my heart some time
But love won't fade or slip away to please my foolish pride
Because my heart overrules my mind

Living without you is too much to live with
Too many memories, too many tears
Living without you is too much to live with
Too much to carry, too much to bear

Living without you is too much to live with
Too many memories, too many tears
Living without you is too much to live with
Too much to carry, too much to bear

Visit Connie Smith page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.