YOUR MEM'RY COMES ALONG

(Johnny Tillotson - Paul Tannen)

© '65 Ridge Music

(Then your mem'ry comes along)

Tears start falling I can hardly see my heart's breaking for oh lonesome me

I tell myself I'll be alright and nothing's really wrong

Oh but just then about that time your mem'ry comes along

Each day I tell myself the hurtin's hurtin' less and less

And that I should be happy that you're gone

But time and time again I feel so lonely and I guess

Oh that's the time your mem'ry comes along

And now my tears start falling I can hardly see...

Each day I tell myself to go and find somebody new

To replace the love I loved so long

Oh but when I'm holding someone else instead of holding you

Oh that's the time your mem'ry comes along

Tears start falling I can hardly see...

But just then about that time your mem'ry comes along
