I just met a girl from the future
Where no one believes in useless masquerades
Ain't that a shame?
Cause you don't wanna hide every day and never come out to play

Then right before our eyes
The legs came from the sky
And we were all open wide
But naked in the light

Time always turned you on
(It always turned you on, but couldn't turn you out)
Time could not hold you down
Or steal the future from your mouth
(Or steal the future from your mouth)

My (my) telescope is extended and now I can see
The new technology
(Ain't that a shame that history has gone and came Freak, freak me out, it's so insane
Ain't that a shame?)

Then right before our eyes (right before our eyes)
The legs came from the sky
And we were all open wide
But naked in the light

Time always turned you on
(It always turned you on, but couldn't turn you out)
Time could not hold you down
Or steal the future from your mouth

Cover me
Cover me
Cover me
Cover me
Cover me
Cover me
Cover me
I'm going in

Time always turned you on
(It always turned you on, but couldn't turn you out)
Time could not hold you down
Or steal the future from your mouth
