Verse:

Look around yourself, what do you see?
All this pain seems so pointless to me
This world is about to fall apart
We have to fix this or it's back to the start
Can you help me?
It's so dark here and I can't see
I need to find my way out
The night is darkest before dawn

Chorus:

Still running around in this maze
How did I get to this place?
The walls are closing in
It's time for justice to step in
I open up the door
And nothing I see is what I waited for
I start faithless
And it's all because it's endless

Verse:

Is this all a war to save our souls?
Or a fight for some to gain control?
If we ever break free from these chains
How many of us will remain?
Can you tell me?
Will any of us ever be free?
I feel my time is running out
So tell me what it's all about

Chorus:

Still running around in this maze
How did I get to this place?
The walls are closing in
It's time for justice to step in
I open up the door
And nothing I see is what I waited for
I start faithless
And it's all because it's endless

*Breakdown*

Chorus:

Still running around in this maze
How did I get to this place?
The walls are closing in
It's time for justice to step in
I open up the door
And nothing I see is what I waited for
I start faithless
And it's all because it's endless
