"Drinkin' Alone"

It was a saturday night, and I was looking to fight
You told me to go away
Get as far as I could
So now I'm out of the house
I don't know why I try to make you love me, but I guess I'll give it a break
it was just a mistake..
it was just a mistake..

Thats why I'm drinkin' alone

Got one down and ten to go

It's not that fun and I dont care to know
Who shes with or where she'll go
Thats why I'm drinkin' alone
Thats why I'm drinkin' alone
Thats why I'm drinkin' alone
Thats why I'm drinkin' alone
