The pressure increases,
Never ceases.
There's no word for the pain I feel,
It's so unreal.

There is only one thing that can do this to me,
I'm sure you see.
The impossibilities mount,
The size I cannot count.

It can only be coursework!
It's sending me berserk!
It can only be coursework!
It's taken me to the point of overwork!
I have two essays due in tomorrow,
And no-one's work to borrow.
My heart's filled with sorrow,
As I look towards tomorrow.

I have an oral again,
It's such a pain,
Everything's in vain,
I'm doing one again.

It can only be coursework!
It's sending me berserk!
It can only be coursework!
It's taken me to the point of overwork!
