I wanna met a brand new girl.
I wanna make a brand new start.
I wanna get a brand new life tonight.

Yeah, yeah, oh baby.
Yeah, baby please.

Girl, I'm through with the yelling and screaming.
You gotta say you're too.
And I know it will hurt when I say it.
I don't wanna be with you.

It was good, yeah I know, girl it's true.
I believe that was yesterday.
But right now, oh, there's nothing.
Left that we could say.

I wanna met a brand new girl.
I wanna make a brand new start.
I wanna get a brand new life tonight.
I wanna met a brand new girl.
I wanna make a brand new start.
I wanna get a brand new life tonight.

So she's telling me something is missing.
When there is nothing right.
Gone are days of our love ends in kisses.
It's gotta end tonight.

It was good, yeah I know girl it's true.
I believe that was yesterday.
But right now, oh, there's nothing.
Left that we could say.

I wanna met a brand new girl.
I wanna make a brand new start.
I wanna get a brand new life tonight.
I wanna met a brand new girl.
I wanna make a brand new start.
I wanna get a brand new life tonight.

So I guess now it's the time that I'm leaving.
No regrets what's about we do tonight.
Just the feeling that I always love ya.
I hate the thought of my girl with another.
I could be wrong, but girl we try.
I think now it's time to say goodbye.
It happen once and I let it slid.
There's no more chances with you and I.

I wanna met a brand new girl.
I wanna make a brand new start.
I wanna get a brand new life tonight.
I wanna met a brand new girl.
I wanna make a brand new start.
I wanna get a brand new life tonight.
